The “AV” rating reflects preeminent legal ability and conformity with the highest of ethical standards.

FIRM HISTORY

Our firm was formed in January of 1997 by Richard A. Goins, its incorporator and sole voting shareholder, as The Goins Law Firm (A Professional Law Corporation). We operated as The Goins Law Firm until January of 2000 when William D. Aaron, Jr. joined the firm as a voting shareholder and our firm's name was changed to Goins Aaron, A Professional Law Corporation.

As Goins Aaron we grew from a two attorney boutique to a full service law firm. Our firm survived Hurricane Katrina in August of 2005 temporarily relocating from New Orleans to Baton Rouge. In June of 2006, we returned to New Orleans, closed our office at 1010 Common Street and opened our current New Orleans office at 201 St. Charles Avenue.

In July of 2010 Mr. Aaron acquired Mr. Goins' stock in the firm and in September of 2010 our firm's name was changed to Aaron, PLC A Professional Law Corporation.

On November 1, 2013 Rose Hager and DeWayne L. Williams, long-time employees of the firm, were promoted to the rank of voting shareholder.

In December of 2013 Dominic J. Gianna joined the firm as a voting shareholder, and shortly thereafter the firm's name was changed to Aaron & Gianna, PLC A Professional Law Corporation.

In December of 2013 we opened a branch office in Salt lake City, Utah. Our Salt Lake City office is overseen by Lisa Marcy a member of the Utah Bar.
